male rookie of the year - nominees

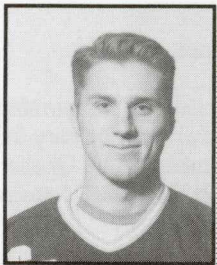

Giovanni Petrella

Football

Montreal, Que.

1st year Economics

Johnny came to Concordia this fall prepared to make an impact on the Concordia football programme and did just that...he led the team in tackles (52.5), was selected to the OQIFC all-star team and was the league's Rookie of the Year and nominee for the Peter Gorman Trophy...Johnny is a graduate of the strong Vanier College programme, and was a recipient of a Quebec Recruitment Bursary.

Angelo Karitsiotis

Hockey

Cornwall, Ont.

1st year Exercise Science

Angelo was placed in an unenviable position this year when he was asked to replace All-Canadian Robert Desjardins...however, Angelo's play earned him a starting berth and the Concordia coaching staff feels he will be a university standout in the years to come...he started in 27 games for Concordia with a 9-9-2 league record and a 4.37 goals-against average.

Mauro Biello

Soccer

Montreal, Que.

1st year Urban Studies

Mauro was a big contributor in Concordia's championship drive which saw the soccer team upset Sherbrooke and McGill in the league playoffs to advance to the CIAU Nationals...the midfielder possesses excellent ball control and is the team's most proficient playmaker...Mauro was a league all-star and second team All-Canadian who plays his best when the game is on the line.

François Boulais

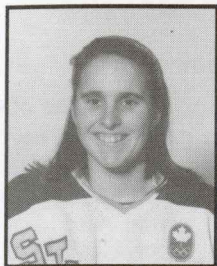

Alpine Skiing

Montreal, Que.

1st year Fine Arts

A veteran of the Quebec ski circuit, François provided the men's alpine ski team with strong showings in the 10-race circuit as he finished 15th in the overall standings...besides his race results, François was instrumental in assisting the coaching staff during the team's training camp in January.

female athlete of the year - nominees

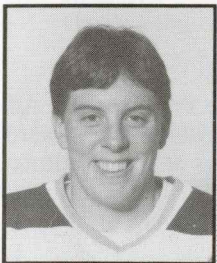

Marie-Claude Roy

Hockey

Sorel, Que.

4th year French Studies

Marie-Claude continued to shine as she helped Concordia to their fourth consecutive regular-season league title...her individual honours include a league all-star selection and a Petro-Canada Scholarship...Marie-Claude was a member of the Canadian National Team which captured the gold medal at the World Championships in Finland last April.

Laura Leslie

Hockey

Beaconsfield, Que.

5th year Exercise Science

Laura capped off an outstanding year by being named Most Valuable Player of the Quebec Women's Intercollegiate Hockey League...led the Stingers in scoring with 87 points (51-36) in 35 games and is the all-time leading scorer in Concordia history...was Concordia's Rookie of the Year in 1989, the team's Most Valuable Player in 1990 and Concordia's Female Athlete of the Year in 1991...was selected to participate in the 1991 Canada Games as a hockey referee...selected as the Sun Life Athlete of the Month for December.

Cassandra Bardo

Volleyball

Anjou, Que.

2nd year Leisure Studies

Cassie is a second year player who led the volleyball team to their most successful season...was selected to the QSSF all-star team and was Quebec nominee for All-Canadian honours...played CEGEP ball at Champlain where she was the team's M.V.P. and the school's Athlete of the Year...was the Sun Life Athlete of the Month in October and was selected M.V.P. of the Queen's Invitational and all-star at the McGill and Ottawa Tournaments.

Josée Lacasse

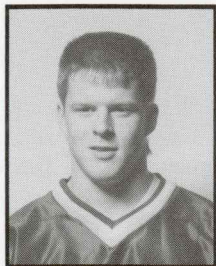

Rugby

Pointe Claire, Que.

3rd year Exercise Science

Josée is a starting member of the Canadian Rugby Team and two-time recipient of the Stinger Most Valuable Player award as she helped lead Concordia to its 2nd consecutive provincial championship...a three-time league all-star, Josée was selected as the team's Rookie of the Year in 1991 and named Sun Life Athlete of the Month for November.

male athlete of the year - nominees

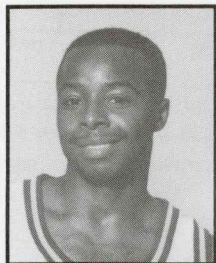

Pat Ryan

Hockey

Gloucester, Ont. 4th year Commerce

Pat was the inspirational leader of the Stinger hockey team on and off the ice...the 4th year Commerce student led the team in scoring with 55 points in 35 games and always provided coach Beaucage with solid two-way performances...Pat was named Sun Life Athlete of the Month in October, his second athlete of the month selection during his three-year career.

Dexter John

Basketball

Montreal, Que. 4th year Leisure Studies

Dexter capped off a brilliant university career with his selection to the first-team All-Canadian squad...Dexter's accolades include the league's Most Valuable Player award, Sun Life Athlete of the Month for January and all-star selections at the Manitoba, Toronto and Laurentian tournaments...known as a prolific scorer, Dexter contributed rebounding, passing and strong defensive play to become a complete player.

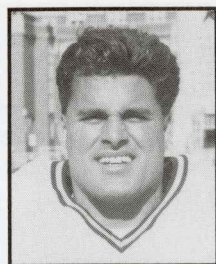

Mark Tilden

Alpine Skiing

Montreal, Que. 4th year Geography

Mark is a fourth year veteran who has developed into one of the top skiers in the Quebec University circuit...he placed in the top ten in six races this year and finished 11th in the final overall standings...Mark has been selected as the ski team's Most Valuable Player the past two years and was named Concordia's Athlete of the Month for February.

John MacDonald

Football

Kirkland, Que. 2nd year Arts

The second year linebacker anchored the Stingers' young defensive corps this season...John's leadership and work ethic were invaluable as Concordia's defense played well all season despite experiencing a rebuilding season...the former John Abbott stand-out had 25 tackles (10 unassisted, 14 assisted and one sack) and was named the Team's Most Valuable Player by his teammates.
